Kimmie Weeks lecture on Global Poverty - Monday, April 16, 7pm
Mark Gibney lecture on refugee politics - Thursday, April 12, 7pm
We will not find out about rooms until January 29, but Murphey 116/Hanes Art Center Auditorium/Hamilton Auditorium/Stone Center Auditorium for the two speakers.

Kimmie Weeks has worked to alleviate poverty and human suffering in Africa and around the world since he was fourteen years old. Kimmie was born in Liberia, West Africa in 1981. At the young age of nine he came face to face with civil war, human suffering, and death. Weeks can still vividly recall eating roots and wild leaves when his family did not have access to food, drinking infested water when national water supply was shut off, and nearly being buried alive after epidemics had wrecked his emaciated body.

Over the years, Kimmie has formed partnerships and led organizations that have provided education to thousands of students in West Africa, lobbied the disarmament of over 20,000 child soldiers, and provided health care and recreation supplies to children. Today, a graduate of Amherst College, Kimmie is working towards building a movement to positively change the face of Africa. His goal and emphasis focus on empowering the people, providing new opportunities, creating strategic development partnerships with Africa and the west, and using technology to link Africa with the rest of the world. This year, the BBC released the documentary Kimmie Weeks: Back to the Front, which is now airing in the UK. Kimmie is also featured in the new book Peace in Our Lifetime as an international peacemaker, along with Nelson Mandela, Gandhi, and Martin Luther King, Jr.
He will be speaking on “Ending Global Poverty” with a focus on children’s rights.
honorarium - $2500
plane ticket from LGA-RDU round trip, April 16-April 17 - $193

Mark Gibney is a leading expert in human rights, specifically regarding refugee rights, which he will be speaking on. He is currently a professor at UNC-Asheville. travel expenses - $0.13/mile for car travel x442 miles round trip from Asheville-Chapel Hill - $57.46

Mission Statement
Advocates for Human Rights (AHR) focuses on civil rights issues around the world. We provide opportunities to advocate and promote discussion of global human rights issues and social justice. Through AHR, we aspire to meet local and global needs, strangle human rights injustices and organize a campuswide Human Rights Week in April.

Budget description

Most of the expenses defined above are generally to aid in building an organization that was not an officially recognized student organization in previous years. All requests are vital to ASDA because there is a great need to develop a strong base that will then be support and increase the longevity of the program.

To begin the, Educational Supplies:
First we have request 500 toothbrushes, 500 packets of floss, and 500 tubes of toothpaste. These items will be used in a service project that will be conducted in association with current Dental Student and is explained in further detail below.
500 Toothbrushes- $1.00 per toothbrush - $500.00
500 Packets of Floss- $1.00 per packet of floss- $500.00
500 Tubes of Toothpaste- $1.00 per tube of toothpaste- $500.00
Total- $1500.00

Next in this category we plan on having an end of year ceremony which will require 5 trophies to be rewarded to the top 5 participants of the organization as well as 50 certificates that each member will receive one. We stated that there would be 50 certificates because we anticipate our membership to grow from the present date until then.
5 Trophies- $10.00 per trophy - $50.00
50 Certificates/Awards- $5.00 per member- $250.00
Total- $300.00
Total Educational Expenses - $1800.00

The following office supplies are what keeps the organization together in a since of creating a means to keep our organization known and keeping its members involved.
Office Supplies:
There will be two mock interviews to be conducted over the course of this year. One of which will be Oct. 17, 2006 and the following will be Feb. 20, 2007. The paper that is requested for this event will help us to create packets for each member that will include vital information regarding the interviewing process (tips, practice questions, as well as room to take notes). Also the members will need pens to use to keep records and notes from the event.

100 pages of paper- $0.035 - $3.50
1 Stapler- $7.00
3 Packets of Staplers- $3.00
4 Packs of Pens- $6.00
Total- $19.50

Next to keep the general body informed of the meetings and coming events of the organization we will need 40 pages of paper per meeting to ensure the general body is well informed and the information is evenly distributed throughout campus. Also tape will be needed to put these informational flyers up. As well as scissors to cut apart paper.

40 pages per meeting (14 meetings)- $0.035 per page- $19.60
2 rolls of tape- $2.50 per roll- $5.00
1 pair of scissors- $5.00
Total- $29.60

Office Supplies Total- $49.10

In terms of the Subscriptions and Periodicals, we would like to request that we receive one copy of JADA (Journal of the American Dental Association) for the time period of 12 months at the cost of $10.00 per issue. This will help the members to stay up to date and informed about the latest news within the dental field.

12 issues of Journal of the American Dental Association - $10.00 per issue- $120.00

Subscriptions & Periodicals Total- $120.00

Finally, in terms of Production we request funds to have a banner for the organization to be made. This will allow us to have an official banner to represent the organization at events we conduct as well as during pit-sitting and other necessary opportunities. We attempted to approximate the cost on the basis of what other organizations have paid in the past for their banners.

1 Banner- $150.00

Production Total- $150.00

Total Budget Request- $2119.10

Mock Interview Program

Dental Students will be paired with Pre-Dental students in the organization to better acquaint the Pre-Dental Students with the interview process. The main goal of this event is to alleviate the tension and somewhat stressful atmosphere that surrounds this portion of the application process. The dental students will provided feedback that will aid them in conquering their fears with the interview process as well as answer any questions that only one who has experienced the interview process can give to them. The events will be hosted on our usual meeting location 150 Old Dental on the following dates: Oct. 17, 2006 and Feb. 20, 2007. The paper that is requested for this event will help us to create packets for each member that will include vital information regarding the interviewing process (tips, practice questions, as well as room to take notes). Also the members will need pens to use to keep records and notes from the event.

100 pages of paper- $0.035 - $3.50
1 Stapler- $7.00
3 Packets of Staplers- $3.00
4 Packs of Pens- $6.00
Total- $19.50

BIG/LITTLE BROTHER PROGRAM

The date for this event is Oct. 31, 2006 and it will be held in our usual meeting place of 150 Old Dental. Pre-Dental members and current Dental students will be paired so that each Pre-Dental student will have the opportunity to ask more specific and personal questions regarding the dental field. These personal questions may range from the dental program here at UNC, the application process, and other factors and obstacles that may need to be or have been overcome by the dental students. This meeting will serve as a vital feedback situation for the members of the organization. To keep the members informed about this event and attract all others that may be interested 40 sheets of paper will be needed to publicize the event.

40 sheets of paper- $0.035 per sheet- $1.40
Hargraves, March 24, 8-5 p.m.

SERVICE PROJECT WITH DENTAL STUDENTS

That Pre-Dental Student members will work in conjunction with current dental students in order to administer oral hygiene instructions to area students, high school level and below. This event will be scheduled for the spring of this year and will take place within the various schools. This is vital to our organization since we are a service organization. It is our duty to serve and give back to the community and this event serves as an excellent opportunity for our organization as well as the community. First we have request 500 toothbrushes, 500 packets of floss, and 500 tubes of toothpaste. These items will be used in a service project that will be conducted in association with current Dental Student and is explained in further detail below.

500 Toothbrushes- $1.00 per toothbrush - $500.00
500 Packets of Floss- $1.00 per packet of floss-$500.00
500 Tubes of Toothpaste- $1.00 per tube of toothpaste- $500.00
Total- $1500.00

Mission Statement

The purpose of the organization would best be explained through the mission statement: “The American Student Dental Association is a national student-run organization that protects and advances the rights, interests, and welfare of students pursuing careers in dentistry. It introduces students to lifelong involvement in organized dentistry and provides services, information, education, representation and advocacy.”

Budget description

This year, we will be holding the Duke-Carolina Student Basketball Marathon at Carmichael Auditorium on March 30 (9 pm) - April 1 (9am). The total cost to rent the gym for the weekend is $5000. Since we have $1000 in venue rental from the budget process last year, we are asking for the remaining $4000.

The marathon will consist of up to 36 teams from UNC competing against 36 teams from Duke to raise awareness for Hoop Dreams Basketball Academy. It will take place in Carmichael Auditorium from March 30 at 9pm through April 1 at 9am. Teams can be made up of students, staff, and alumni and will stay at the marathon for varying amounts of time, up to the full 36 hours. Because the marathon is the weekend of the Men’s Final Four, we plan on showing the Final Four on a big screen which will draw a large audience. The largest expense for the marathon is the venue cost, which are the funds we are requesting. Other expenses will include equipment rental and publicity, which we received funds for through last year’s budget process.

Mission Statement

The purpose of Basketball Marathon is to raise awareness for Hoop Dreams Basketball Academy and the children involved with it. Hoop Dreams teaches children with life-threatening illnesses life skills through basketball. This year, the marathon will directly involve up to 200 players and 200 volunteers from UNC. It has the potential to involve the entire UNC-CH community, including alumni and staff, as they can attend the marathon which will be taking place the weekend of the Men’s Final Four.

Notes

I don’t think we can fund the venue – too expensive.
They were allocated $2,550.00 at the AB.

Budget description

The BGSA Invited Speaker Seminar is scheduled to occur on March 20, 2007, in Coker Rm 201 at 4:00 PM. A reception will be held in Coker 215 at 3:15 PM with coffee and snacks.
This seminar is open to the public at no cost.
Speaker Fees (honorarium for Dr. John Endler of UC Santa Barbara): $300
Travel (round trip flight from Los Angeles International Airport): $440
Lodging (two nights, at approximately $90 per night): $180

The Biology graduate students invite one speaker yearly through the Helen P. Mangelsdorf lecture series. However, the Biology department is extremely broad, and includes two divisions of graduate students with very different research interests. Each year, one of the divisions does not get to invite their top choice as the Mangelsdorf lecturer. Because of this, each year, a full half of the local biology community, including graduate students, undergraduate students, and faculty, misses a scientific opportunity. Thus, the BGSA established a new lecture series to fill this need. This lecture occurs during the opposite semester from the Mangelsdorf lecture, and will allow a greater number of the Biology graduate students to interact with an accomplished scientist in their own field of interest. This lecture series will also broaden our offerings to the undergraduate community, and to the UNC community as a whole. This series runs in the same way as the Mangelsdorf Distinguished Lecture Series, and is open to the public.

Last year, we invited Dr. Shirley M. Tilghman to speak for this cause, but because of a last minute conflict on her end, she was not able to come. Fortunately, we have found a speaker to come in her place: Dr. John Endler from UCSB will has committed to speaking on March 20th. This seminar will be held in Coker 201 at 4:00, and will be open to the public. He has also been asked to meet with graduate students and other department members throughout his visit. Unfortunately, our money for Shirley Tilghman... has been reverted to Student Government Funds. We are now hoping to receive funds to acknowledge our new speaker, Dr. Endler. Speaker Fees (honorarium): $300 Travel (flight from Los Angeles International Airport): $440 Lodging (two nights): $180

Mission Statement

The UNC-CH Biology Graduate Student Association acts as a voice for biology graduate student concerns and as a bridge between graduate students and other departmental members. In addition, the BGSA is an organization committed to promoting and improving the study of biology by undergraduate students by fostering undergraduate research assistanships and independent research projects that are supervised by graduate students. Similarly, the BGSA serves as a resource for graduate student Teaching A

Budget description

We are obligated to pay 210.00 for regional dues and 404.25 for national dues, which totals to 614.25. We have collected 20.00 in dues per member, amounting in 800.00. Once we subtract our regional and national dues, we are left with 185.75. Our general operating expenses include $10.00 for postage and 100.00 for fliers.

36TH ANNUAL SOUTHERN REGIONAL CONVENTION

BLSA would like to send a mock trial and moot court team to compete in the Thurgood Marshall Mock Trial and Frederick Douglass Moot Court Competitions at the 36th Annual Southern Regional Convention in Miami, Florida from January 17-20, 2007. These competitions are very prestigious and BLSA is proud to say that we have received places in these competitions 2 years in a row. This success has benefited the reputation of UNC Law School, which in turn benefits the entire University and its reputation for housing outstanding graduate programs. We would love the opportunity to represent our school again and provide our members the chance to acquire skills, which will be extremely beneficial to them in their law careers. Estimated Expenditures Description

a. $ 2,000.00 Plane Tickets (10) for $200.00 each (roundtrip)
b. $ 3168.00 Hotel Room (3)(Jan. 17, 18, 19, 20 at 264.00 a night)
c. $ 1000.00 Individual Registration, $100 per member (10)
d. $ 100.00 Exhibits, binders, etc. for competition
e. $180.00 Cab Fare (2 cabs) at approximately 30.00 each day roundtrip

Total $6,448.00 (adjusted to 4,720.00)

Our registration fee does not include meals to our knowledge, but there will be light snacks provided throughout the convention. We are aware that 90.00 is the maximum rate for lodging that SC will allot, so we included the amount we actually need and the adjusted amount beside it.

Budget description

Item One
Avery White Adhesive Name Badges (#5395)
Avery.com - One pack (400 labels) = $57.91
Twenty-six packs (10,400 labels) = $1531.61 (includes shipping and handling)
Office Depot - Avery White Adhesive Name Badges (#5395)
One pack (400 labels) = $49.99
Twenty-six packs (10,400 labels) = $1390.72 (includes taxes and free shipping and handling)

Item One will be used to increase the awareness of when the Homecoming Elections are to take place in the fall. The Board has already received confirmation from Sports Marketing and the CAA that we will be able to attach these tags to the pom poms that are handed out at each football game. Each one will display a message such as VOTE IN THE HOMECOMING ELECTIONS ON NOV. 7, 2006

Item Two
Avery High Visibility Labels, 2-1/4” diameter (#8284)
Avery.com - One pack (240 labels) = $16.47
Forty-two packs (10,080 labels) = $709.99 (includes shipping and handling)
Labelspro.com - One pack (240 labels) = $11.65
Forty-two packs (10,080 labels) = $523.55 (includes taxes and free shipping and handling)

Item Two will be used to also increase the awareness of both elections this year (Homecoming and the Campus ones in February). The Board of Elections is currently planning, but has also received confirmation from several groups that these will be used on cups and bottles of water saying THE BOARD OF ELECTIONS REMINDS YOU TO...
VOTE IN YOUR STUDENT ELECTIONS (the dates will be given below after this sentence).
Item Three
11x17 Carolina Blue paper
500 sheets per ream, 12 reams total (6,000 sheets)
Kinkos - One case = $119.50
Two cases = $239.00 (doesn't include taxes and free shipping and handling)
Hammermill Recycled Fore MP Color Paper One ream = $10.82
- Twelve reams (2 cases) = $140.84 (includes taxes and free shipping and handling)
The Board of Elections will be using Item Three in order to increase the awareness of each election once the election process has begun. These will be used for an official elections poster. The Board is currently working with the GAA and several other campus groups to create an eye catching design for them. With the help of the BOE Outreach Division, the Board plans to strategically place 3,000 posters across campus for any Special Elections that do occur and also the Campus Elections in February. The Board has already worked out agreements with the Housing Department as well as the Grounds Department to place signs in high student traffic areas.
Item Four
Campaign Yard Signs 12 inch x 24 inch (Amt. = 5,001) (one sided, one color)
-Sigmakelect.com = $3800.76 (Includes free wire plus shipping and handling)
Campaign Yard Signs 16 inch x 26 inch (Amt. = 5000) (double sided, one color)
-Politicalsign.com = $8695.00 (Includes free wire plus shipping and handling)
Item Five
Three rolls (30 inches x 40 feet) of white paper
Michaels Arts and Crafts Store
- One roll = $4.99
- Three rolls = $18.00
In the same respect as Item Three, the Board plans to strategically place these banners at its 10-15 polling sites (Homecoming and Campus Elections) across campus on each Election Day.
Item Six
Student voter education banners, 3 ft. x 10 ft.
AllKindsaSigns - Raleigh
- One banner = $95.00
- Fifteen banners = $1425.00
Signbanners.com
- One banner = $117.00
- Fifteen banners = $1755.00
Student Congress will benefit the most from this portion of the Boards publicity campaign. The Board will target each student in terms of the education they receive concerning which candidates are running. These banners will be placed in high student traffic areas throughout the on campus districts. Both the Grounds and Housing Departments have fully agreed to support this project. Each banner will consist of permanent writing that indicates which district these candidates are running to represent. In addition, clear plastic sleeves will be attached to it in order to hold and display each candidates picture. Finally, information as to where students can learn more will also be displayed. These banners will be displayed beginning after each candidate is certified by the number of signatures they receive on their respective petition.
Item Seven
Rope
Lowes Lehigh (2,250’) Sisal Binder Twine - $10.43
Home Depot Wellington Rope Sisal Binder Twine - $8.99
To be used to hang education banners.

Item Eight
Duct tape 1 roll
Office Max - $5.99
Office Depot $5.99

Item Nine
Masking tape 1 roll
Office Max $1.79
Office Depot - $2.59

Item Ten
Paint 6 bottles
Michaels Rich Art Tempera Paint (1 each, 16 oz. bottle) - $1.99
Sams Club Elmers Tempera Paint (6 pack, 16 oz. bottles) - $9.86
To be used to paint the polling site banners.

Item Eleven
Character costumes
Magicmakers.com = $500.00 for one week of use
Every year, the CUAB has costume characters run through campus to instill some humor in each Carolina student. In the same respect, the Board is planning to have several character run throughs every day for the week heading up to the Campus Elections in February. They would be carrying elections signs that we provide to increase the student awareness about elections and lighten the mood a little as well.

Item Twelve
30 metal poles for education banners
To be used to hold the voter education banners in each district.

Grand Total (with lesser cost chosen) $7825.50

Mission Statement

To conduct and administer all those elections as outlined in the Student Constitution of the University of North Carolina, including Homecoming, and ensure compliance with all laws governing the aforementioned processes. Unofficially, the Board is charged with trying to increase the student voter turnout in all campus elections to the best of their ability.

Budget description

In May 2006 Student Congress granted BoUNCe Magazine enough funds to publish issues for the first semester of the school year and one additional issue to start out the spring semester. BoUNCe has a circulation of 5000 copies that are distributed across campus and in several establishments on Franklin Street, and is one of the most widely-read publications on campus. BoUNCe Magazine normally produces six issues a year with an additional summer CTOPs issue, and so we are requesting funds for the remaining two issues of the year and our CTOPs issue. Our current and most economically efficient printers charge $1,141.97 for 5000 16-page issues distributed during the school year. BoUNCe Magazine’s summer CTOPs issue has only about 2000 copies and is half the size of a normal issue. Thus, BoUNCe is requesting $700 for the summer issue, which is about 40% less than the cost of a regular issue. In total, for the two remaining issues of this semester and the summer issue, BoUNCe requests $2983.94.

Mission Statement

BoUNCe Magazine is a non-partisan, submissions-based humor magazine dedicated to entertaining the UNC Chapel Hill community with satirical commentary on current issues ranging from campus events to international incidents. “Submissions-based” means that participation is open to anyone in the UNC community, and we encourage humor of all varieties, from absolute absurdity to balanced political satire. All literary and visual formats will be considered.

Notes

Full funding due to AB promise.

Budget description

We are putting on a concert in April of 2007, the tentative date being April 13th. The printing money will be used for tickets, programs, and fliers promoting the event. The programming money will be used for basic sound and lighting to be provided by the Carolina Union.

An evening of music and comedy put on by Carolina students for all Carolina students. We hope to provide a much needed diversion from end-of-semester stress. The main cost of this event is the sound and lighting, which we contract for with the Carolina Union. This usually costs between five and six hundred dollars. In addition, we print approximately 150 programs and tickets, as well as fliers to advertise the event.

Admission : 3.00

Mission Statement

The purpose of our organization is to reach out to the UNC Campus through music. We put on a concert once each semester, and sing throughout the year at events sponsored by other organizations, mainly charitable events. We are a relatively young organization, and it is our hope that Cadence will persist and continue to bring this service to future generations of Carolina students.
Budget description

The expenses cover the materials and hanging costs of the artwork. The flat pieces are multi-media, using graph paper and wall paper. There will be one large installment that is made completely of paper. There will be several sculptural pieces, made of chicken wire, plexi-glass, and cloth. These pieces (3 in total) will be displayed on pedestals. Supplies include: graph paper, wall paper, larger paper installments, light bulbs and fixtures, chicken wire, cloth, plexi-glass, markers/paint, a guestbook, hanging supplies. Equipment includes: wire cutters, Exacto knives, platforms for the sculptural pieces, equip. needed for hanging. Pulicity: fliers, tape, staples, copying costs.

This is an abstract art exhibit dealing with the human rights issues of the death penalty. The exhibit is apolitical. It examines the death penalty as a moral issue and brings to light the human element of both the victims and the perpetrators. The event will have an educational component, providing unbiased information on the death penalty. We understand that while the issue and our organization have historically had a direct political affiliation, the art exhibit does not. It is our intention to reach as many people as possible in an open-minded and unbiased way. The artwork does not contain or suggest offensive things. This exhibit is expected to go up in March 2007, however, we do need the funding in advance in order to complete the artwork. The budget encompasses supplies we will need for the project, equipment we will need to set up the exhibit, and publicity expenses. In making our budget, we have made an effort to be as frugal as possible. These are basic needs for the art exhibit. The artwork is purposefully minimalist. We are applying for the art space in the Union, so there is not cost for the space, and there is no admission fee.
Mission Statement

We seek to end the death penalty in North Carolina through education, awareness, intellectual exploration, and legislative action.

He graduated from Rhema Bible College as an evangelical minister and has earned a MBA in Marketing. $400 speaker honorarium

Mission Statement

Campus Crusade is an international student movement that seeks to meet the spiritual needs on campuses throughout the world. We recognize the many quality programs of UNC, but we feel that the spiritual needs of students are often neglected. We do not seek to be a church in any fashion but instead a continuously evolving organization that builds community, provides religious information, and encourages students to challenge and understand their religious beliefs.

Professional Labor / Fees: 2 Production Services staff for Saturday night dance = $150
Building/Venue Rental: Opening Union 30 mins early on Saturday morning (9am) x
$30 per 30 minutes = $30
Closing Union 60 minutes late on Saturday night (12 pm) x $30 per 30 minutes = $60
Opening Union 150 minutes early on Sunday morning (9 am) x $30 per 30 minutes = $150

The Catalyst Conference brings 80 high school students from across North Carolina for a weekend of workshops, panels, and speakers exploring social justice issues and leadership development. Approximately 35% of Conference attendees become UNC students, and many cite their experiences at the Conference as motivating factors for choosing Carolina for their college education. The 2007 Catalyst Conference involves collaboration with the following student organizations for its workshops and speakers: Advocates for Human Rights (Campus Y), CHisPa, Criminal Justice Action and Awareness Committee (Campus Y), EROT, Linking Immigrants to New Communities (Campus Y), Millennium Village Project, Muslim Students Association, and SWEAT.

Catalyst Counselor Retreat

This one-night retreat at Camp Chestnut Ridge is required for all Catalyst counselors. At the retreat, training sessions will ensure all counselors are prepared for the challenge of conducting workshops for high school students and being admirable role models of leadership and diversity. Travel: 16 gallons of gas (8 cars, 2 gallons per car) x $2.30 gallon/gas = $36.80
Lodging: 32 counselors x $21 lodging fee per person = $672
Breakfast food: 32 counselors x $6 breakfast fee per person = $192
Lunch food: 32 counselors x $7 breakfast fee per person = $224
Please note: We are not asking Student Congress to cover the cost of food, as these are considered "personal gain" and, as such, are not funded by Congress.

2007 Catalyst Conference

The 2007 Catalyst Conference, February 23-25, will:
Give high school students the opportunity to build and learn from personal relationships that transcend racial, ethnic, religious, and gender boundaries.
Provide an open forum for discussion of community issues of social justice and equality through a series of workshops to educate students about diversity and social issues.
Empower students to combat the apathy and ignorance threatening the future of America's youth through personal development sessions and leadership training.
Create a network of peer support between high school students and college Catalyst Conference counselors.
Transform our high school students into catalysts for positive social change and generate a vision of social harmony for the 21st century and beyond. Office Supplies: 150 nametag for students and counselors x $17.85 per box of 100= $35.70
120 folders for students and counselor x $0.32 per folder = $38.40
5 16 oz. bottles of paint x $3.99 per bottle = $19.95
10 sponge paint brushes x $1 per brush = $10
Printing: 30 pages for 80 students x $0.03 per page = $72

Building/Venue Rental: Opening Union 30 mins early on Saturday morning (9am) x $30 per 30 minutes = $30
Closing Union 60 minutes late on Saturday night (12 pm) x $30 per 30 minutes = $60
Opening Union 150 minutes early on Sunday morning (9 am) x $30 per 30 minutes =
$150
T-shirts: 150 shirts at $6.20 per shirt: $930
Food:
Friday dinner: 25 Papa John’s pizzas x $7 per pizza = $175
Saturday breakfast: 120 Alpine bagels x $0.56 per bagel = $67.20; 24 jugs of apple or orange juice x $2 per jug = $48; 80 fresh fruit (apples, oranges, bananas) x $0.50 per piece = $40
Saturday lunch: 120 Bear Rock Cafe boxed lunches x $5 per box = $600
Saturday dinner: 120 Franklin St. Pizza and Pasta dinners x $8 per dinner = $960
Sunday breakfast: 120 Alpine bagels x $0.56 per bagel = $67.20; 24 jugs of apple or orange juice x $2 per jug = $48; 80 fresh fruit (apples, oranges, bananas) x $0.50 per piece = $40
*Please note: We are not asking Student Congress to cover the cost of food or t-shirts, as these are considered “personal gain” and, as such, are not funded by Congress.

Admission: $30 per high school student

Mission Statement

The Catalyst Conference Committee of the Campus Y seeks to engage university students in broadening the minds of tomorrow’s leaders through explorations of national and international social justice issues, leadership development, and discussions of diversity. This is primarily accomplished through the annual Catalyst Conference, attended by 80 NC high school students. UNC students are entirely responsible for the programming and conduction of workshops and panels during this 3 day event.

Mission Statement

Our purpose is to teach UNC students the fundamentals of boxing. Training may be either for competing on the club's competitive team, or simply as a means to learn technique and stay in shape. Training sessions are twice a week, with three focuses: Speed, Strength, and Technique. We are looking to supply all members with their own pair of handwraps, and are aiming to have enough pairs of gloves and punch mitts to hold several simultaneous training drills.

Notes

No T-shirts/Hand-wraps (personal gain all day long)
Shouldn’t this be subsidized by the Athletics Department?
Gloves

Budget description

We have procured Dr. Richard Janko, an eminent scholar in our field, as keynote speaker for our spring colloquium to be held on the weekend of April 21-22 at Duke University. We are requesting funds for his honorarium in addition to travel and lodging expenses.

ARCHIVES AND COLLECTIONS IN THE GRECO-ROMAN WORLD

This colloquium provides a forum for the presentation of graduate papers on the topic of libraries and collections in Greco-Roman antiquity and their ideological significance.

- $360.00 Printing and Publicity, Postage
- $1800.00 Travel/Lodging for Grad Students, Keynote Speaker
- $600.00 Honorarium for Keynote

Mission Statement

Our organization seeks to foster academic debate about relevant issues in the study of the Greco-Roman world. In cooperation with Duke University, we hold a colloquium every spring that features papers presented by graduate students in Classics programs throughout the country, in addition to a keynote lecture given by a distinguished Classical scholar.

Budget description

Fundraising: We were awarded $550 for fundraising. $400 of that was to go to buy 50 t-shirts at $8 each. We would like additional funding to purchase those t-shirts, because we cannot get 50 t-shirts for $8 each. Harpers Arts, who also provides t-shirts for a lot of campus organizations, has the following prices on t-shirts:
- 25 shirts - $10 per shirt
- 50 shirts - $9
- 75 shirts - $8
- 100 shirts - $7
- 150 shirts - $6
- 200 shirts - probably 5 dollars each

With our current funding, we would only be able to get 25 shirts (as 50 would cost $450). Also, our profit margin would be negatively effected. Not only would this leave us with less money to use for our organization, but also would make it more difficult for us to repay that fundraising money. This might result in our having to forfeit other funds and cancel events.

In lieu of this development, we would like to amend our request for fundraising to include $700 for t-shirts. That gives us a better profit margin per shirt, and more shirts to sell. We believe we can easily sell those shirts, as there are a number of events coming up where alumni and parents will be at the law school. One of those events is Law Family Day, coming up on Sept. 30. In preparation for this event, we have already placed an order for 100 t-shirts.

We are requesting an additional $300 in fundraising money to pay for the balance of the cost of the t-shirts.

Mission Statement

The group was founded for the purpose of fostering a community that is more conscious of the effect of the death penalty on society. Our objectives are to build awareness of the discrepancies presented by capital punishment on certain socio-economic and racial classes, as well as the effect on society at large. We utilize the law school community to help conduct post conviction jury interviews, moratorium efforts, client visits, as well as to bring educational and inspirational speakers.

Notes

Is group willing to accept a loan of $300??
-Knows it must be repaid (in addition to previous fundraising appropriation from Annual Budget) by June 30, 2007.

Budget description

Of the $151 equipment expense, 50 will go towards seeds for the garden, 15 to organic fertilizer, 16 towards potting soil, and 70 towards tools such as gardening forks, hoes and rakes. These will be initial costs that will not be repeated often after the first year of the organization. The $100 programming expense will go towards a speaker that we hope to bring to campus on April 4, 2007 along with a few other groups.

Speaker Anna Lappe

Anna Lappe, influential speaker and author of Grub: Ideas for an Urban Organic Kitchen. Anna is an inspirational speaker encouraging young people to take action and make a difference. She speaks about social change with a global perspective. I feel that she will present a powerful speech for our students. The program is being sponsored by multiple groups, including nutrition students at the school of Public Health, and it should cost about $800 total.

Mission Statement

The Carolina Garden Co-op was founded in the fall of 2006 with the purpose of providing a place for students and community members to learn about organic gardening. We hope to spread awareness about the importance of local, sustainable food to all of the student body, faculty and community members. After beginning our gardening the project last month, we have been attracting new members on a weekly basis and have a solid core of membership.

Budget description

Expenses from our programs will be specifically addressed in the Annual Budget Program Description Form

Printing and Publicity:
- Cubes (4 for Fall semester) * $20.00 = $80.00
- Handbills for Chispa General Body Meetings and Que Rico Tryouts and Dance Lessons
- 11 meetings (Fall) * 50 sheets * $0.035 = $19.25
- Tryout: 300 copies * $0.035 = $10.50
- Dance lessons: 500 * $0.035 = $17.50
- Carolina Adventures Team Building $126
  (before school started, on-campus retroactive)

Hispanic Heritage Month is from September 15-October 15 and every year we celebrate that with a Chispa week which consists of many different activities our biggest one being the Chispa Carnival. This carnival includes food, decorations, multiple performances by renowned Hispanic groups, and multiple tables full of information on how to get involved in the community with services specifically geared towards the latino community. Production:
- Performers:
- DJ: $250
- Union production services (Pit): $200
- Streamers: $1.49 * 5 = $7.45 (plus tax) = $7.96

CHISPA CARNIVAL
- Balloons: (Wal-Mart): $30.00 for helium + first 20 balloons + $5.00 for extra pack of latex balloons + tax = $45.00
   Handbills: $17.50 = 500 copies

LATINO AIDS AWARENESS

In conjunction with El Pueblo organization from Raleigh, North Carolina we are traveling to Siler City in order to promote healthy sexual habits and to increase hispanic awareness about a disease that is plaguing our community. Publicity and Printing (.035x500handbills) + (.035x 100) packets of information = 21.00

VOTER REGISTRATION

We volunteered our time to help promote the latino vote in the United States, and to encourage participation in the American government system.

IMMIGRATION FORUM

An open ended discussion on immigration to promote healthy debate and to expose people to the impact of immigration, specifically latino immigration, on the economy and the community. Publicity (500 handbills x .035) = 17.50

DREAM ACT DEMONSTRATION

A demonstration showing our support for the DREAM Act, a political Act that would allow immigrant children to attend institutes of higher learning at in-state prices. Publicity (500 handbills x .035) = 17.50
Posterboard (10 x .99), tape (2 for 2.99), ribbon ($4.00) = $19.88

Mission Statement

We seek to sponsor and continue fostering Hispanic awareness within the University and within the Chapel Hill community. We also hope to provide a supportive environment for those Latinos on campus, whether they are students, workers or otherwise. We aspire to bridge the gap between Hispanic and non-Hispanic students on campus, and promote positive race relations.

Budget description

All expenses will go to printing the spring issue of Carolina Passport. We have already received $2250 from the Associate Provost of International Affairs and $2250 from the Center for Global Initiatives (previously UCIS). We need an extra $500 this semester to print the magazines that will go in each CTOPS packet given to the incoming freshmen.

Mission Statement

Passports mission is to promote and facilitate international awareness and learning for all Carolina students by exposing students to international education opportunities, serving as a venue for students to share their international and/or intercultural experiences and encouraging students to expose themselves to different cultures by utilizing the international education opportunities Carolina offers.

Budget description

We would like to print 7,000 copies of Carolina PASSPORT this semester. At about $0.90 per copy (using last year’s quote), 7,000 copies will cost $6,300. I have spoken with the representative from Harperprints and she said the cost will be about the same. She is sending me this year’s quote on Monday, Oct. 2 so I will have it, along with another from Kinkos, on Tuesday for the meeting. We have already recieved funding from the Associate Provost for International Affairs and from UCIS in the amount of $4,000. Therefore, we need $2,300 more to print our publication. Last year, 11,000 copies were printed, but due to the overflow of submissions we recieved this year, we would rather print less copies and include more articles. I have already factored this in to the cost using the quote from last year. All the articles for this semester’s magazine have been chosen and edited. We are in the process of designing the magazine. Our deadline is Oct. 16, when we will take the publication to the press. Admissions has already requested over 700 copies and we distribute copies all over campus— including 610 to the mailboxes at the Business School, about 700 copies to the Student Union and Davis library. I have spoken with Anisa Mohanty, student body treasurer, over email and she said it would be fine if I brought the quotes for this year to the meeting on Tuesday, so if there is a discrepancy with the new quotes, we can change the request accordingly. Thank you.

Mission Statement

PASSPORT’s mission is to promote and facilitate international awareness and learning for all Carolina students by exposing them to international education opportunities, serving as a venue for students to share their experiences and encouraging students to travel outside their comfort zones and expose themselves to different cultures.

Budget description

This semester the Carolina Production Guild wants to make five short films to be completed at the end of the year by each filmmaking team. We are the only ones working with film on campus now! The film (Kodak Super8) + processing + transfer + shipping cost is $750. The various production costs including paint and set building materials like lumber and nails; as well as set dressings like draping and minor props $500. Costume, accessory and make-up costs will be $200. We will need to cover the cost of DV tapes, CDRs, DVDRs, batteries, halogen lightbulbs, and any additional film equipment rental $400. We need to purchase a new battery for or DV recorder $62. We will need to make 500 copies for production packets, 400 copies for screening programs and 200 copies for flyers (1100x0.035) $38.50.
Total Requested: 1,950.50

Mission Statement

The Carolina Production Guild’s mission is to provide the access and ability for the student organization to produce expressive and artistic short films. By empowering students with the knowledge of the process, techniques, and skills, needed to produce such films, we strive to promote creative expression and independent thought.

Budget description

We are trying to secure funds to have speaker Nonie Darwish come to campus in order to speak about Israel, terrorism, the reasons behind it, along with her own life story. She is the daughter of a suicide bomber and the founder of the group Arabs for Israel. She’s a renowned campus speaker and we believe she’ll spark interesting discussion on campus, as she has in other places she has visited.

We are shooting for a date in the beginning of March and will have the event on campus, most likely in a lecture hall style classroom. Her fees are usually upwards of $3,000, but other national Israel-advocacy groups are covering the rest, except for the $1,500 we are requesting.

Nonie Darwish will come and speak on UNC’s campus about her own life as the daughter of a suicide bomber and will promote her mission of reconciling Arabs and Jews along with detailing what she believes to be the cause of suicide terrorism in the Middle East and how it can be solved. $1,500 for Ms. Darwish’s honoraria

Mission Statement

Carolina Students for Israel is a student run campus group dedicated to introducing students, both Jewish and not, to the State of Israel through cultural and informational programming. We sponsor programming such as Israeli dancing, Israel Fest, along with movies and other cultural exhibits. Our goal is to make students familiar with both the nation of Israel and the people who live there.

Budget description

Sponsorship in part of a public talk by Professor Daniel Gilbert on February 20th on his book “Stumbling on Happiness”, including a $1000 honorarium, $230 for his travel from and to Boston (the cheapest to be found on Expedia.com and Southwest.com), $180 for his two-night stay at the Carolina Inn, and $35 for 1000 flyers for publicity.

Daniel Gilbert on “Stumbling on Happiness”

We want to bring Professor Daniel Gilbert to campus on February 20th to talk about his book, “Stumbling on Happiness”. We have already reserved Murphey Hall 116. Professor Gilbert requested an honorarium of $1000 and asked that we cover his travel from Boston, Mass, and a two night stay at Carolina Inn ($180). We checked Expedia.com and Southwest.com; the cheapest round-trip flight we could find was $230.00. We would like to print 1000 flyers and post them around the campus (1000 * $0.035 = $35).

The Parr Center for Ethics is also sponsoring the event, and will provide staff, a reception ($500), and publicity beyond the flyers, including newspaper advertising ($1000).

Mission Statement

To further understanding of and familiarity with contemporary and historical philosophy in any UNC undergraduates who wish their understanding or familiarity to be so furthered, primarily by meeting regularly for discussion on a wide range of philosophical topics but also by irregularly sponsoring speakers and undergraduate symposia. We do not yet have a certified treasurer, but we hope to by the Finance Committee meeting on the 3rd.

Budget description

The Epidemiology career day will be held in the school of public health (Rooms - 3100 MHRC, 2301, 2304 McGavran, & 331 Rosenau) on March 23rd, 2007 from 10 am to 4 pm. There will be 4 concurrent sessions with each session being led by 3-4 alumni who are working in the field of public health. The sessions will be divided according to whether the alumni work in a government, private or academic setting. The students will rotate through the sessions or can attend particular sessions according to their interest.

The costs above represent only a part of the total cost of running the career day. They are primarily to assist with the travel expenses for panel members. We assume that the speakers do not require honorariums. We will be inviting 12 alumni as there will be 4 concurrent sessions. 4 will be from NC ($400 in travel), 4 from east coast ($800 airfare), 3 each from central US ($900 air fare) and west coast ($1200 air fare). We will provide lodging to 9 people ($810) for one night. $50 will be spent for printing and publicity. Some of the funds (about $200) will be generated from student dues and fundraisers. A part of the cost ($2000) will be borne by the Epidemiology Alumni Association.

The Epidemiology Student Organization (ESO) Career Day Workshop provides an opportunity for students interested in and studying epidemiology to meet with professional epidemiologists (both alumni and non-alumni). Students rarely meet with professionals in their field beyond those in the academic setting, and therefore gain most of their insight regarding employment from faculty mentors. Also, students usually cannot attend conferences due to limited funds and time. Thus, the ESO Career Day Workshop brings the professionals to the students and enhances the students’ ability to consider additional employment and research options.

Anyone who listens to NPR hears about epidemiology at least once a week. In today’s world of bioterrorism, epidemiology is becoming more and more important, but many people don’t know what epidemiologists really do. We propose having an epidemiology career day, which would allow any student who wants to know more about epidemiology to hear about real-world epidemiology from real epidemiologists. In addition to showing epidemiology students what career paths are available, this event would allow any UNC student who has sat staring at the radio after hearing the word ‘epidemiology’ to learn more about the field.

The Workshop will consist of new and seasoned epidemiologists divided into groups based on their employment setting: academic, government, non-government or industry. Students will rotate through concurrent sessions throughout the afternoon in order to hear from each group of participants. A reception following the Workshop will provide an informal setting in which panel members, students and faculty can share their work and interests. The Workshop and reception will also enable speakers to learn about research being conducted at UNC-CH, which may provide opportunity for further collaboration with students and faculty.

This event has been a great success in the past. The last career day that ESO organized in 2005 was attended by about 300 students from various disciplines across the School of Public Health and undergraduate campus. We expect more than 300-400 students to attend the event this year. The event is unique because it is the only platform where students can interact with people who are working in the field of epidemiology. Thus, this is different from a career fair where representatives of private companies and government organizations come to offer recruitment opportunities.

The career day, which will take place on March 23rd, 2007 at the UNC School of Public Health (Michael Hooker Research Center, Mc Gavran Greenberg, Rosenau) will enable undergraduate and graduate students to gain a broader perspective of the employment and research opportunities in epidemiology through their interaction with both alumni and non-alumni epidemiologists and faculty members. ESO is collaborating with the School of Public Health Alumni Association to plan this event. While some participants who live locally will not request funds to be a panel discussant, other epidemiologists working outside of North Carolina, whose insight is integral to the success of this event, will require, at a minimum, travel reimbursement. We would also like to provide refreshments for panel participants throughout the workshop and for all participants at the reception. The costs above represent only a part of the total cost of running the career day. They are primarily to assist with the travel expenses for panel members. We assume that the speakers do not require honorariums. We will be inviting 12 alumni as there will be 4 concurrent sessions. 4 will be from NC ($400 in travel), 4 from east coast ($800 airfare), 3 each from central US ($900 air fare) and west coast ($1200 air fare). We will provide lodging to 9 people ($ 810) for one night. $ 50 will be spent for printing and publicity. Some of the funds (about $ 200) will be generated from student dues and fundraisers. A part of the cost ($2000) will be borne by the Epidemiology Alumni Association.

Mission Statement

ESO serves about 150 epidemiology students, providing academic, professional and social support to students in the Department. Additionally, ESO sponsors events of general public health interest in efforts to improve health awareness and disease prevention among the entire graduate and undergraduate student body. Most notable among these is the Epidemiology Career Day open to entire UNC campus to be held in Spring 2007.

Budget description

The 26th Annual Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration keynote lecture by Cornel West on January 17, 2007 at 7:00 p.m. in Memorial Hall.

Tickets will be distributed to students two weeks before they are available to the general public. They will be free to students. A dinner and meet-and-greet will preceed the keynote, and a reception will follow.

26TH ANNUAL MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. CELEBRATION

Formerly at Harvard University, Cornel West is currently a professor of Religion at Princeton.

After graduating from John F. Kennedy High School in Sacramento, California, he enrolled at Harvard University at age 17 and graduated in three years, magna cum laude in Near Eastern languages and literature. He went on to Princeton to complete his graduate education, where he was influenced by professor Richard Rorty, specifically his dedication to the pragmatist school of philosophy. His dissertation, completed in 1980, was later revised and published as The Ethical Dimensions of Marxist Thought. In his mid-twenties, he returned to Harvard as a Du Bois fellow before becoming an assistant professor at Union Theological Seminary in New York City. In 1985, he went to Yale Divinity School in what eventually became a joint appointment in American studies. While at Yale, he participated in campus protests for a clerical union and divestment from apartheid South Africa, one of which resulted in his being arrested and jailed. As punishment, the university administration cancelled his leave for Spring 1987, leading him to commute between Yale (where he was teaching two classes) and the University of Paris (where he was teaching three).

He then returned to Union and then taught at Haverford College for one year before going to Princeton to become a professor of religion and director of the Program in African American Studies, which he revitalized in cooperation with such scholars as novelist Toni Morrison. He served as director of the program from 1988 to 1994. 1993 saw the publication of Race Matters, a bestselling collection of essays, as well as his departure from Princeton to join the Afro-American studies program at Harvard, chaired by Henry Louis Gates, Jr. (who called West the preeminent African-American intellectual of our generation). In 1998, Harvard appointed him the first Alphonse Fletcher, Jr., University Professor.

West published Democracy Matters: Winning the Fight Against Imperialism, his follow-up to Race Matters, in 2004. In the book, West calls on Americans to forge a mature hope that fortifies us on the slippery tightrope of Socratic questioning and prophetic witness in imperial America.

The introduction to The Ethical Dimensions of Marxist Thought, entitled The Making of an American Democratic Socialist of African Descent is an autobiographical essay. In addition, the first section of The Cornel West Reader, entitled Autobiographical Prelude, provides further information on West's personal and intellectual background.

West is a prominent member of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity, the first collegiate African-American fraternity. He is also a supporter of animal rights and PETA.

The Committee seeks to relate the commitment and ideas of the late Dr. King to our present social milieu and assess alternative strategies for completing his unfinished agenda in the years ahead.

The University community is a most appropriate setting for these activities due to its importance and influence in the broader society. By sponsoring these events, the University acknowledges its responsibility and commitment to diversity and equality, while nurturing cultural appreciation and respect for all members of society. Housing, the Residence Hall Association, Student Affairs, the Sonia Hanes Stone Black Cultural Center, the AFRI & AFAM departments, the Black Student Movement, the National Panhellenic Council, the Department of Athletics, the Carolina Union Activities Board, the Office of the Chancellor, and Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity have contributed to the week of events in the past and are expected to this year as well.

All events: http://www.unc.edu/diversity/mlk/

West's total honorarium is $28,000 (not inclusive of other expenses).

Mission Statement

The purpose of the MLK, Jr. Birthday Celebration Planning Committee is to plan/coordinate educationally relevant programs/events that are designed to honor the life and legacy of the late Dr. MLK, Jr. All events included as an official part of the celebration schedule should focus on the issues that Dr. King sought to address. "A week of cooperatively planned events that commemorate the ideals of Martin Luther King, Jr."

The phone bill for this year was severely undercalculated. The Executive Branch has been able to cover the bills through December by doing some internal transfers, but it will not be able to do so for January through June.

$48 base per line
$65 average per line (incl. long distance) * 7 lines (SBP, SBVP, SBS, SBT, CoS, Fax, Main Office) * 7 months (Jan, Feb, March, Apr, May, Jun) = $3185
Note: The Executive Branch pays bills for three other lines (Senior Class, Board of Elections, Congress), and has the money transferred back from each of those accounts.

FORMER U.S. SENATOR ZELL MILLER (D-GA)

During the third week of April, the UNC chapter of the Federalist Society will host former Democratic governor and senator Zell Miller of Georgia. Mr. Miller will deliver a lengthy speech to students, faculty and guests at the largest facility available on campus. Based on the track record of events sponsored or co-sponsored by the Federalist Society over the years, we expect to have well over 1000 people in attendance. Total cost of event, including honorarium and travel, will amount to $30,000. Through some fundraising efforts and a discount from Mr. Miller on his speaking honorarium, we have been able to offset a small portion of the cost. We are requesting $15,000 from Student Congress.

Mission Statement

The Federalist Society for Law and Public Policy Studies is a group of conservatives and libertarians interested in the current state of the legal order. It is founded on the principles that the state exists to preserve freedom, that the separation of governmental powers is central to our Constitution, and that it is emphatically the province and duty of the judiciary to say what the law is, not what it should be. The Society seeks both to promote an awareness of these principles and to fur

We will be holding our annual symposium on Feb. 16 at the Friday Center in Chapel Hill, NC. The event will include 10 speakers/panelists. For the event, we will need to pay for renting the Friday Center, travel and lodging for our speakers, and publicity for the event. We will also be publising our Spring edition of the journal. Printing of the Journal will be conducted by Joe Christensen, Inc. We have utilized Christensen's services since our beginning five years ago.

I did not see any other place to put in a formal request for a specific amount of funding so I would decided to add it here. We are requesting $8,500.00 - $9,000.00 for the events referenced below.

Also, I did not put in the figures from the previous year, because the previous staff did not keep a detailed budget and therefore, I did not want to be misleading with information so in those places, I left box blank.

FIRST AMENDMENT LAW REVIEW SYMPOSIUM

The program will focus on the First Amendment Rights of Tax Exempt Organizations and Non-Profit Organizations. The program will consist of three panels dealing with various aspects of the theme chosen for this year’s symposium. The panels will include three (3) people and there will be one keynote speaker. The program budget will include the rental of office space (The Friday Center), travel and lodging (Siena Hotel, Chapel Hill, NC) expenses of speakers/panelists, honorarium for speakers, supplies for the event, printing, and advertisement/publicity (i.e. radio spots, newspaper advertisement, NC law journals/periodicals, etc.)

FIRST AMENDMENT LAW REVIEW VOLUME 5:2

This is our Spring edition of the journal. Generally this issue consists of mainly student-written pieces and one or two professional works. Each works is generally between 30-50 pages. The journal averages between 250-350 pages in length generally. Printing is handled by Joe Christensen, Inc. located in Omaha, NE. We have utilized Christensen’s services for all our issues to date. The issue generally costs approximately $3,700 The budget is for the printing of the journal by Joe Christensen, Inc. located in Omaha NE.

Budget description

For publicity, there will be facebook and Daily tar heel advertisements, color and photo flyers, and handouts for the lecture. The speaking fee is the honorarium for Beatrice Fernando. Travel is for the plane ticket from Chicago to Raleigh. Because we will not be able to buy the ticket until we have secured enough funding, we are applying for a little more than the current price of $234 on Orbitz.com to allow for increase in the price between now and when we are able to purchase the ticket. Lodging is for one night at Best Western.

We are bringing Beatrice Fernando to come speak about human trafficking. A bit about Beatrice Fernando: She was born and raised the youngest of thirteen children in Sri Lanka. Extreme poverty forced her to seek employment as a housemaid while her parents cared for her young child. Ms. Fernando responded to an ad from a local job agency that placed Sri Lankan housemaids with families in Lebanon. At 23 years old she left her son and family behind to earn money necessary to support them: Yet Ms. Fernando was never able to send money home. Instead, she found herself being trafficked to Lebanon as a domestic slave. Her wealthy slaveholder locked her inside the home, unhooked the phone, and forbade her from going outside or communicating with others. The apartment complex guards were ordered to shoot her if she was found outside the apartment. During her captivity, she was starved, regularly beaten, and never paid. After months of torture, she escaped by the only option available to her: jumping off the apartments fourth-story balcony. After several months, she made her way back to Sri Lanka, never having received remuneration for her labor. At the hospital doctors told her the damage to her spine as a result of the jump would prevent her from ever walking again. Yet Ms. Fernando is walking as well as sharing her story with audiences across the country. She has spoken several times at Harvard, appeared on local television and radio shows, and been profiled in The Boston Herald. Most notably, she has published her autobiography, In Contempt of Fate, and was invited to testify before the House Committee on International Relations in Washington, D.C.

In the past, our speaking events have been extremely well attended, the most recent being a lecture by Francis Bok last December which filled up Carroll 111. Beatrice Fernando would be no different. This event would have a major impact on the campus community, and its subject human trafficking is an issue that needs to be addressed. The lecture will occur on October 26th at 7pm. $2065 total budget as explained above.

In addition to this application, we have applied for funding from all of the academic departments, the Carolina Asia Center, and the University Center for International Studies. So far, we have received $550 in support from the Curriculum in International and Area Studies.

Mission Statement

The purpose of our organization is to raise awareness of modern day slavery. Many people on campus would be shocked to find out that not only does slavery still exist, but there are around 27,000,000 slaves in the world today and that there are even slaves in the United States. We work to make sure that people are aware of this, and raise funds to help combat slavery.

Notes

1. Can’t fund DTH ads.
2. Ads, any ads (e.g. facebook), are not a funding priority
3. How many flyers do you need? (multiply by $0.035, fund this much in P&P)
4. Did she request the honorarium?

According rider.

Budget description

This Funding Request is for two separate requests. One for LAMBDA and one for a Unity Conference Speaker.
The LAMBDA magazine will be publishing 2 issues for the semester. Each issue costs $588.86. LAMBDA was first published in 1976 as the “voice of UNC’s gay and lesbian community.” It has always been a project of the main LGBTIQ student organization on campus.
LAMBDA is proud to be the nation’s oldest student-run LGBTIQ publication, and we strive to be mindful of our rich history.

UNITY CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Regional Unity Conference is an annual gathering of progressive lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer identified people and their allies in the Southeast to discuss the intersections of gender and sexuality with ability, age, class, faith, health, and race/ethnicity; strategies for effective grassroots organizing; and to discuss work that other LGBTQ activists are doing in the Southeast. In generating this dialogue, the Unity Conference serves to foster a progressive Southeastern LGBTQ movement that affirms and reflects all aspects of the identities of LGBTQ people. We are seeking 2500 for Robin Tyler a key note speaker of the Unity Conference. A budget is attached.

Mission Statement

The GLBT-SA advocates and educates on issues affecting LGBTQ-identified people in the Southeastern United States. By creating dialogues between heterosexual and LGBTQ communities; networking with campus and community progressive organizations; building an affirming LGBTQ social environment; and advocating for the civil rights of all people, we create a community of LGBTQ folks and their allies that supports and affirms all aspects of their identities.
The Unity Conference was already considered at the AB; can’t fund it.
Also, at AB, LGBTSA said each issue of Lambda was $494.15. Why has it changed?
Full funding due to AB promise.

The Carolina Conference on Romance Literatures is requesting funding for the following expenses:
Speaker Fees: $3500
(Breakdown by speaker: Colilli $1000-confirmed, Attafi $1000-confirmed, and Paz-Soldn $1500-confirmed).
Airfare for Speakers: $1500
(Breakdown by speaker: Colilli - Sudbury, ON, Canada to Raleigh-Durham $650, Attafi - Charleston, SC to Raleigh-Durham $450, and Paz-Soldn- Ithaca, NY to Raleigh-Durham $400).
For the following airfares, we have checked Expedia.com, and then the websites of US Airways and Air Canada directly to find the lowest airfare.
Hotel for speakers: $810.00
(Breakdown: 9 nights at $90/night)
Printing Costs: $528.37
(Breakdown: Programs and Flyers. We have gone to three different printing stores, Kinkos, Staples, and Office Max in order to collect three bids for printing costs. The cheapest price that we found was the bid given by Kinkos which would charge $528.37, tax included. We will bring the bids to the Student Congress meeting if they need to be reviewed).
Total requested: $6338.37
Thank you for your consideration.

CAROLINA CONFERENCE ON ROMANCE LITERATURES

March 29-31, 2007
SPRING BUDGET (See above information)
Mission Statement

The Carolina Conference on Romance Literatures is the largest conference in the country organized and run solely by graduate students. Our annual 3 day conference brings 3 keynote speakers, all experts in an aspect of romance literatures. Approximately 150 conference participants come from outside the university (from all over the country as well as throughout the world). About 400 Carolina students, graduate and undergraduate, participate in some way in the conference each year.

Speaker fee for Dr. PM Forni. Covers a public lecture on the evening of November 15th for approximately 300 community members, a book signing and reception following that lecture, and a lunch workshop on the 16th for approximately 30 campus community members about civility.

HONOR AND INTEGRITY WEEK KEYNOTE ADDRESS: CHOOSING CIVILITY

Dr. PM Forni is a professor of Italian Literature at John Hopkins University. In recent years, he has become increasing interested in civility and its relationship to modern American society. In 2002, Dr. Forni published his first book on civility, Choosing Civility: The Twenty-five Rules of Considerate Conduct. John Hopkins University, American University in Washington, DC, and several other colligate institutions have based their civility initiatives upon his work (http://www.american.edu/ocl/vp/civitas/index.html).

We are very excited to have Dr. Forni visit Carolina and feel the insights he will bring will further our awareness of civility, its affect on the general quality of one's life, and its relationship to Carolina's core values of honor and integrity.

The lecture on the evening of November 15th will be a public lecture open to all members of the campus community; it will begin at 7:15 pm and be held in Haynes Art 121. It will last for approximately 75 minutes and consist of nine main speaking points that address civility and its inherent ability to improve the quality of individuals' lives.

Immediately following the lecture, Honor System Outreach will sponsor a reception during which Dr. Forni will be available for book signings and answer any questions that attendees might have about his writings and philosophy. The next day, November 16th at 11:30 am, Dr. Forni will lead a workshop for approximately 30 UNC students, faculty members, and administrators. During this workshop, Dr. Forni will lead attendees in interactive discussions and presentations about practical applications of his lecture points and incorporating civility into Carolina’s community life.

A full description of both events as written by Dr. Forni is available on his website at http://web.jhu.edu/civility/talksandworkshops.html Forni's Speaking Fee for 3 events: $8000
Forni’s Plane ticket from BMI to RDU on the 15th and return ticket on the 16th: ≈ $300
1 night stay at the Carolina Inn: ≈ $200
Dinner for 5 at Top of the Hill: ≈ $120
Hors d’oeuvre at Book signing and reception: ≈ $50
Lunch for Workshop attendees: ≈ $120
Approximate Total: $8720

Mission Statement

Honor System Outreach is charged with fostering communication between the Honor System and the campus community, developing understanding of the Honor Code, and promoting the general values of Honor and Integrity within the campus community by presentations, publications, lectures, and interactive events.

Budget description

All of the expenses listed above will be used for the Human Movement Science Research Symposium.

Educational Supplies-Awards will be given to 2 students who do a great job presenting at the research symposium. Presentations will be evaluated by faculty in Exercise and Sport Science, Physical Therapy, and Biomedical Engineering. Students will be evaluated on uniqueness of research, clarity of the presentation, and presentation skills.

Printing and Publicity-A booklet will be given to each attendee that provides abstracts for each presentation that will be given at the conference. We have budgeted to make 80 booklets. Last years attendance to the conference was approximately 65, and we anticipate more this year. Also, flyers will be printed to post around campus so that those interested may attend the conference.

Speaker Fees-We will have a keynote speaker at this conference. We are awaiting confirmation from Steve Messier, professor from Wake Forest University. He will give a talk providing insight on working in academia and how he has grown to be a successful researcher in biomechanics.

Equipment Rental-We will be renting equipment from the Carolina club for the conference. Equipment to be rented includes, podium with a wireless microphone, large screen, A/V cart, Registration table, and 15 large easels for placement of research posters.

The Human Movement Science Research Symposium is an event that we host to promote research collaboration among students at UNC and neighboring colleges and universities. This event gives students the opportunity to present the research that they are doing and interact with other students who may be doing similar work in an area related to human movement science (sports medicine, physical therapy, biomedical engineering).
This event will be held on March 2nd, 2007 on this campus. This will be the second year for this event. We received very complimentary feedback on last year’s event and we hope to continue this for years to come.

The money for the above listed supplies will all be used to assist us in hosting this event. The program budget is approximately $4000. We are requesting $1250 from Student Congress to help us pay for this event. We have received $950 dollars from the Robertson Scholars program due to the collaboration between UNC and Duke for this event. A detailed description of the requested money is provided in the “description of expenses” section. We plan to find sponsoring companies outside of UNC that will help us to pay for the catering of lunch for this event since payment of food cannot be requested to Student Congress.

Mission Statement

The purpose of the Human Movement Science Interest Group is to facilitate the involvement in and exploration of the field of Human Movement Science by students both in and outside of this area of study. Although the majority of members are graduate students from Human Movement Science and related fields, this student group is open to all people per the restrictions and requirements of the Official University Recognition Agreement.

Budget description

March 31st we will be the date of our 2nd annual spring conference to be held at the Sonja Haynes Stone Center.

Security: $150, Standard charge for Stone Center Police Officers

Programming: $50, Monies left from our original request for the year

Printing and Publicity: $300, Conference booklets, flyers, Informational Conference Materials

Fundraising: $600, T-shirts

The conference will consist of a breakfast, 6 breakout sessions, lunch, and a keynote speaker. Potential topics of the conference include professional development, overcoming barriers in a male dominated workforce, healthy relationship skills, recognizing your personal strengths, effective goal setting, building networks, and maintaining positive self esteem and confidence. We hope to work with Carolina Wellness Services, The Carolina Womens Center, and UNC faculty and staff to provide quality speakers for each specific breakout session. We will construct 3 tracks for breakout sessions each age appropriate. The program will be immediately evaluated by participants and coordinators at the conclusion of the conference with evaluations. See above.

Admission: $8.00

Mission Statement

The mission of I Am B.E.A.U.T.I.F.U.L. at UNC - CH is to provide a mutually supportive and positive learning environment to empower people to achieve greater levels of

SHAUN GROVES CONCERT

Date: September 28, 2006
Time: 7:00pm
Location: Hanes Art Center Auditorium; however, depending on funds, we would like to reserve Hill Hall.
Details: This will be open to the public. Admission will not be charged. We expect 300 people if we are in Hanes Art, but we expect 450-500 if we are allowed to hold the concert in Hill Hall.
Purpose: As our campus supports an initiative to embrace difficult dialogues relating to religion, there must be a diversity of events that will inspire discussion. In order to support this initiative, to reach out to campus, and to motivate our own membership, this concert will bring up issues of how Christians should respond to poverty, war, and a number of different difficult subjects. It would be beneficial for this campus because it provides a different form of initiating debate between diverse members of the student body.
In some ways, this has social elements, but the fact that it will be fun simply means that people will be more open to the discussion that it encourages. Intervarsity is committed to making it a quality event without any ulterior motives. This will be a great event, with a great musician, speaking openly about issues in our society. Funds Request: $1300 Honorarium and technical support $1100
Room Charge 200 (not requesting)
This will allow us to move to Hill Hall in order to accommodate more people than we would be able to fit in Hanes Art Auditorium.
There will be no Student funds spent on his food or lodging.
Mission Statement

Lecture by Lauren Winner

Lauren Winner is an author and adjunct professor at Duke. She has written such works as Mudhouse Sabbath and Girl Meets God. The lecture took place on November 30th and attracted around 300 students in Hanes Art Auditorium. Requesting subsequent appropriations for a lecture by Lauren Winner. The required total honorarium is $1000. We have raised $300 and request the remaining $700 from Student Funds. The lecture was open to all students, there was no cost of admission, and all the money requested goes to pay her honorarium and nothing else.

Budget description
To print 1,500 copies of one issue of our magazine costs $3429. This is already at a discounted price through UNC Printing Services.

Mission Statement
The purpose of Kaleidoscope Fashion Magazine is to create an artistic outlet for students and members of the UNC-CH community. We seek to broaden the culturally diverse visions of the campus while educating the population about the art of fashion. We hope to inspire, encourage and grow the fashionable community on campus. Additionally we hope to develop skills necessary for magazine production. As the journalism school currently has no magazine sequence, we feel that this is very important.

Budget description
Last year, we successfully printed 1,000 full-color issues of newsprint paper with SG funds. Since Mezcla has been such a great success, we have decided to raise the number of pages from 24 to 32, copies from 1,000 to 2,500 and to switch to a more cost-effective printing company.
Triangle Web Printing quotation:
16 pages: $950
24 pages: $1409
32 pages: $1640

Mission Statement
Mezcla is the only bilingual (English and Spanish) magazine on campus. It aims to promote awareness and discussion about the changing linguistic, political and social landscapes in the Hispanic world and the US, especially in the Triangle area. Ultimately, we aim to reconcile the differences and facilitate dialogue between mainstream US and Hispanic culture.

Printing and publicity-$50-programs/flyers/pub for our spring show this year(2007)

Production-$150-costumes for our spring show this year for each separate dance we have in the show
Capital expenditures-$400-upon meeting with production services, they have estimated that it will cost approximately $400 for lighting/sound and other production services for our show in April

MEZMERYTHM ANNUAL SPRING SHOW

Our annual spring show this april will be held in the Great Hall of the Student Union. This is a performance show in which Mezmerythm will be the pain performance group. In addition, other dance groups that have been invited will also perform in our show. Our annual spring show is the ultimate way that we let others know about our organization.

Mission Statement

The purpose of our organization is to promote all different styles of dance such as ballet, tap, jazz, hip hop, and latin into one dance group. Our members have all different backgrounds in different styles of dance that they bring to the organization. We aim to promote the art of dance to our fellow students in all of the performances we do around campus and most importantly in our annual spring show.

Budget description

These projected expenses were based upon the past year’s expenses. The office supplies will be used for general and standard things needed such as receipt books, postage, pens, tape, etc. The dues and fees are for the Regional Conference that will be held in Goldsboro, NC. Printing and Publicity will be used for advertising the planned events throughout the year. The fundraising money will be used to initiate all the fundraisers we would like to have. The programming money will be for the programs we plan to have throughout the year.

MLK PROGRAM

This program will be a celebration of the life of Martin Luther King Jr. and the influences that he has had on the world during his lifetime and even still today. Approximately $1,000 for the speaker fees

Mission Statement

The mission of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is to ensure the political, educational, social and economic equality of rights of all persons and to eliminate racial hatred and racial discrimination.

The symposium will address practical challenges for any attempt to repudiate sovereign obligations pursuant to a doctrine of odious debts or any alternative mechanism. We hope that participants will consider, for example, how and when disputes over repudiation of sovereign debt might arise; what actors might have standing to assert relevant claims or defenses; whether affirmative claims might be brought against non-sovereign parties (e.g., creditors); what venues might be more or less suitable for raising and evaluating the merits of such claims; what countervailing legal rules or doctrines might prove to be significant obstacles to the repudiation of sovereign obligations. We also hope that the symposium will explore the potential consequences of the successful operation of any odious debt mechanism—e.g., how repudiation of sovereign obligations would affect capital markets. Finally, we hope that symposium participants will consider political and other practical challenges to creating new international legal-institutional structures (e.g., tribunals) for addressing odious debt claims. The symposium which is hosted annually will include four panels of internationally renowned academics, practitioners, and business leaders. The symposium is open to students, faculty, and staff at UNC for free and any other individuals that wish to attend. Attendees have the opportunity to listen to presentations from some of the world’s foremost thinkers on the issue in question and have the chance to engage in one-on-one dialogue in the Q & A sessions at the buffet dinner following the symposium. NCILJ does not pay its speakers speaker fees for participating in the symposium; instead, we compensate them for their travel lodging, meals, and incidentals. Our speakers are dedicated to expanding the scholarship in a given topic and areas. The publicize the event by distributing a large number of brochures to UNC alumni, local organizations interested in the subject matter of the symposium, and relevant UNC organizations. We will provide meals at the symposium and each attendee receives a registration packet.

Mission Statement
The North Carolina Journal of International Law and Commercial Regulation is a student-run legal journal at the University of North Carolina School of Law in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Now in its thirty-first year of publication, the Journal is dedicated to stimulating the intellectual climate through legal scholarship in the area of international law. In order to achieve this goal, the Journal publishes four issues each year that include writings from academics, professionals, and students.

Budget description

Opeyo! Dance Company, a subgroup of the BSM will be holding its annual Spring Show in the Stone Center Auditorium on Wednesday April 25th at 7pm. The show will consist of the three components of Opeyo (female hip hop, male hip hop, and modern) performing, as well as guest performances from other UNC performance groups. Opening the show will be youth ages 8-14, who will participate in Opeyo’s Youth Dance Workshop. The budget for each members costumes are $100, which would be $2500 total. Security for the Stone Center is $35 per hour and the show will last 2 hours totally at $70. Production Services for our Fall Showcase were around $175 and we expect the cost to be around the same for this show.

OPEYO! SPRING SHOW

Spring Showcase of the three components of Opeyo! Dance Company. Costumes for 25 members $2500.00
Production Services $175.00
Security for the Stone Center $35 per hour (show will last 2 hours)

Admission : $5 in advance $7 at the door

Mission Statement

Opeyo! Dance Company is a subgroup of the Black Student Movement, a prominent organization on the Carolina campus. As a subgroup of the BSM, we provide an outlet for artistic expression and community outreach through various genres of dance. We have participated in major shows, such as the Homecoming Step Show, and have performed in various campus events such as Dance Marathon and Relay for Life.

Notes
Left in Costumes...needs to look at Annual Budget to figure out what happened:
$2,500 in costumes was allocated at Annual Budget but, parent organization (BSM) spent the money without sub-organization’s knowledge/consent.

Budget description

The conference has a $60 registration fees for college students, with 15 students going the total is $900. The cheapest hotel around that area cost $84 per night, 4 students per room, for one night comes to a total of $336. Car rental is based upon the rates provided by Carolina Motor Pool: $0.34 per mile for an 8 passenger van. The distance from our campus to the location of the conference is roughly 600 miles back and forth, therefore the approximate cost will be $408 for two vans.

Mission Statement

O.A.S.I.S. is dedicated to spread awareness to our campus and the surrounding communities about the beauty of African culture, to dispel stereotypes, and to provide a social atmosphere in which Africans and non-Africans can interact and learn from each other. Our world is constantly changing, and the continent of Africa is no different. Therefore, our new goals include understanding the changes and challenges facing our continent as well as dispelling those issues associated with the continen

Notes

1—What is this conference??? Where is this conference??? (600 miles away, but towards the North, South, East West???)
2—Purpose Statement...nothing about representing organization (Vitality Argument)
3—Low Priority

Subscriptions & Periodicals: We had a newsletter called Tenesha, which provides useful and knowledgeable information about OASIS, the community and issues about Africa. There will be two publication one in February and the other in other March, each will cost $250, so a total of $500

Programming: This entails The Art Exhibit and Africa Night/Week (additional information provided below)

African Night is our biggest annual event; it involves a dinner, a fashion show, several dances, poetry reading, and a play centered around the theme of “Save The Africa You Want to Celebrate.” We also invite other on-campus organizations as well as other African organizations in the Triangle area to participate in the show. (1) Venue/site fees - Memorial Hall ($3,500)
(2) Technical/production (lighting, stage, equipment, etc) fees ($1500)
(3) costumes and props: African fabric and tailoring ($300) and prop rental from Play-Makers Theater ($250) = ($550)
(4) publicity/publications: ($70)
Admission: $7.00 - show and $10.00 - show and dinner

A program by OASIS ACTS! Initiative to raise funds for the education of students in the Nakasangola region of Uganda. Art works by Maviyave Davies and other artists from the surrounding area will be sold at this auction. Davies will be participating in a discussion forum. (1) flight ($250)
(2) travel ($30)
(3) lodging ($180)
(4) renting equipment (lighting, panels, picture frames) - ($300)
(5) Reprints (printing posters from original film) ($250)
(6) Publicity (pubs, posters, invitations) ($100)

Mission Statement

OASIS is dedicated to spread awareness to our campus and the surrounding communities about the beauty of African culture, to dispel stereotypes and myths, and to provide a social atmosphere in which Africans and non-Africans can interact and learn from each other. Our world is constantly changing, and the continent of Africa is no different. Therefore, our goals include understanding the changes and challenges facing our continent as well as dispelling those issues associated with Africa.

Budget description

Subscriptions & Periodicals: We had a newsletter called Tenesha, which provided useful and knowledgeable information about OASIS, the community and issues about Africa. But, unfortunately it was discontinued due to lack of funds. Now we are trying to re-establish it, but need funds for it to continue.

Programming: This entails The Art Exhibit and Multicultural Dance showcase

Costume/Props: We have a dance subgroup, Zankiliwah, that performs several times throughout the year on and off campus and also at other campuses, so we need outfits for them to showcase during their performance.

Multicultural Dance Showcase

This program will showcase different aspects of African culture rooted from Africa or related to Africa. Different dance groups will be incorporated in the program to examine how African dance has influence others. This will expose the community to the diversity and similarities between African cultures and other cultures. (1) Production (costumes), (2) publicity, (3) venue

Admission : $5.00 for entrance

African Movie Night
An African movie that dissect social justice problems in an African country. This movie serves to enlighten the community about a current problem in Africa. (1) Equipment rental (projector and screen), (2) production fees and labor

ART EXHIBIT FOR STUDENTS IN NAKASANGOLA, UGANDA

This program will serve as a service project conducted by OASIS ACTS! Initiative to raise funds for the education of students in the Nakasangola region of Uganda. Art works by Maviyave Davies and other African artist will be sold at this auction. (1) Speaker fees (Maviyane Davies), (2) travel, (3) lodging, (4) Production - venue

Budget description

This coming year will be our first year with office space in the Union. Therefore, we are asking for basic office supplies in order to run our office so that we can best meet the needs of our constituents. We are also asking for money for a banner that we can use to publicize our organization.

Office Supplies :
Pens @ 1 box/$1.09 2 boxes = $2.18
Paper @ 1 ream/$5 = $5
Paper Clips @ 1 box/$0.29 2 boxes = $0.60
Calculator @ 1 unit/$10.00 = $10.00
Scotch Tape @ 1 unit/$1.19 = $2.38
Packaging Tape @ 1 unit/$1.62 = $3.24
Stapler @ 1 unit/$16.00 = $16.00
2” Binders @ 1 unit/$4.19 3 units = $12.57
Highlighters @ 1 box/$6.89 = $6.89
Sharpies @ 1 box/$6.99 = $6.99
Rubber bands @ 1 unit/$5 = $5.00
Total = $ 75.85

Publicity :
Banner 3’ x 5’ @ $99 = $99
Copies 200 @ $0.35 = $70.00
Total : $169.00

Mission Statement

The purpose of our organization is to form a network between out-of-state-students. We have access to resources such as shuttle transportation to the airport, storage space and taxi services. We also provide social events in order to create a bond between out-of-state students. from fighting rampant tuition increases to providing friendship, OSSA keeps the interest of all out-of-state students in mind.

Budget description

We plan to purchase 2,000 red safety whistles from RMG Accessory Gear at $.90 per whistle (plus tax, shipping and handling). Each whistle will have the name of our organization, Project Dinah, printed on it.

PROJECT DINAH WHISTLE DISTRIBUTION

Project Dinah will distribute safety whistles during lunch, and at other prime times, in the Pit. Students will be encouraged to take a free whistle, which will be attached to a sexual assault resource card. Students will also have an opportunity to learn more about efforts to prevent sexual assault on campus. The budget is composed entirely of the cost of obtaining the whistles from the company mentioned above.

Mission Statement

Project Dinah is a safety and empowerment organization aimed at increasing education and awareness about sexual assault and increasing safety among men and women.

Budget description

We are putting the money towards printing. We plan on distributing on the 12th of February. We are trying to lower our advertising fees for this issue in order to attract advertisers for our first issue and to give ourselves some breathing room. The magazine is free.

Mission Statement

Reverb Magazine is dedicated to educating the student body on the local music scene while consolidating all of the information available into one resource. It provides the student body with an easy way to find out what is going on while giving local bands (largely made up of UNC students) a way to get their name out. We also provide a local perspective on more nationally known bands.

Budget description
Programming: Guest performer fees
Received $15,000...simply not justifiable to give any additional (arbitrary or otherwise) amount, particularly for an event we’ve partially funded already,

Aaj Ka Dhamaka is an annual intercollegiate dance competition. This year it will be held at Memorial Hall on November 11th. AKD hosts participants from a variety of East Coast schools to compete in the dance competition. This past year, the first place winner received $1000, second place $500, and third place $250. This year, we would like to increase the diversity by bringing in a guest performer. Budget includes money for Venue Rental, Tech equipment and staff, Programs, Color Fliers and Handbills, Posters, Paint Carts for the Cube, Ticket Commission, Costumes and Props, and Guest Performers.

Admission : $12/person

Mission Statement
Sangam is the South Asian Awareness Organization at UNC Chapel Hill. As the name suggests, its primary goal is to help promote awareness about South Asia and South Asian culture among the campus community.

Budget description

The Social Movements Working Group (an interdisciplinary group of graduate students and faculty) & the Society of Anthropology Students is inviting renowned scholar Dr. Frances Fox Piven to give a public lecture and participate in a working group meeting. Dr. Piven’s honorarium is $2,500. One thousand will be covered by the Social Movements Working Group. We are currently soliciting funds for the additional $1,500 needed for her honorarium. In addition, we seek funds to cover her airfare and hotel costs for two nights of her stay. The approximate budget for the entire event is $3,500. These funds will be used to support the visit by Frances Fox Piven, an internationally renowned scholar and activist who has written several books on how social movements have impacted public policy in the U.S.

The purpose of the event is twofold:

1) Dr. Fox-Piven will give a public lecture on her academic work touching on both her scholarly work and her work with the Community Action Program, the National Welfare Rights Organization, and about being a cofounder of the Human Service Employees Registration and Voter Education Campaign (Human SERVE) (sometimes referred to as the Motor Voter legislation). She will touch on the themes of her two new books that are to be released this year. Dr. Piven has authored and coauthored books recognized as classic works that have significantly influenced social theory and practitioner interventions. Examples include Regulating the Poor (1972, revised 1993), Poor Peoples Movements: How They Succeed and Why They Fail (1977), The Breaking of the American Social Compact (1997) and Why Americans Don’t Vote (1998), Why Americans Still Don’t Vote (2000).

2) She will meet with an interdisciplinary group of graduate students and faculty in the Social Movements Working Group. Here she will discuss her work as an engaged public-interest scholar and discuss the work being produced by the working group members. The Working group is comprised of graduate students from Anthropology, Geography, Cultural Studies, and Sociology, among other disciplines. We are extending invitation to all to attend, but see particular relevance for those in the fields of political science, public policy and social work.

Time permitting, Dr. Piven has agreed to meet with smaller groups, including undergraduate and graduate seminars.

Budget description

This year the Society of Physics students will require $400.00 dollars in educational expenses, used to purchase books. The books will be on a variety of physics related topics and serving as supplements and learning aids. They will be kept in Phillips 116, the SPS room, which is accessible using a door code. All SPS member have access to Phillips 116 and it is the most popular location for members to study and do homework. Some of the books we will purchase are owned by the Math-Physics library, but the books are inaccessible because they usually checked out for long periods of time by professors or graduate students. All SPS members will have access to these materials and will benefit from dedicated reference materials permanently located in their favorite study room. Half of the books purchased will be on the major topics of physics, Mechanics, Quantum Mechanics, Electro-Magnetism, Thermodynamics and Electronics. However, we will also purchase books on the advanced math required used in physics. We will also purchase reference books on programming (a necessary skill) and books about physics problem solving. In addition we will buy books on preparation for the Physics Graduation Record Examination, which the library does not carry. Having a club copy of preparation materials will facilitate group study, which is the best way to prepare for this very difficult exam.

We have budgeted $50.00 for office supplies, which includes traditional office supplies and cleaning supplies for Phillips 116, the dedicated SPS room. Needed office supplies include: staplers, hole puncher, many dry erase markers and erasers (work is often done on the large dry erase boards in Phillips 116). Phillips 116 has a high traffic volume of students studying, eating and socializing and the SPS is solely responsible for the cleanliness of the room. The room also has a microwave and refrigerator which require cleaning. We will buy a variety of all purpose cleaning supplies to keep the room tidy and sanitary.

SPS is also requesting $80.00 dollars to cover the registration fees to the National Chapter of SPS for officers. National SPS membership also includes a complementary membership to the American Physical Society (APS), the premiere physics society. Officer membership to the national chapter of SPS and APS will facilitate communication among SPS organizations at peer institutions. Membership to these organizations will also help the officers to strengthen the UNC SPS by engendering new ideas and more helpful programming.

We also request $250.00 for printing and publicity. About half of these funds will be used to purchase ink cartridges for a color inject printer and paper. This printer will be used to print event flyers, announcements and signs for room 116. We will also buy a banner from the National SPS organization for $80.00. This banner will help to announce our presence and recruit year round. We will also use this banner at SPS functions and at campus events such as fall fest. With the remaining printing and publicity funds we will buy recruitment materials from the National SPS and pay for printing services such as lamination.

Mission Statement

The Society of Physics Students is an organization open to all persons interested in Physics, and whose purpose it is to bring cohesion and bonding among undergraduates of UNC-Chapel Hill. We seek to encourage the intellectual growth of physics students as well as to build connections between undergraduate and graduate students, faculty, and alumni.

Budget description

We want to organize a Panel Discussion on, Ethics of Embryonic Stem Cell Research and we have already invited confirmed, several UNC faculty, representatives from the Newman Catholic Center, Graduate and Undergraduate students to take part in the panel. We will have this event on January 22, 2007 at 7:30 p.m. We have already reserved the Student Union Auditorium. There will be no honorarium paid for this event.

We would like to print 1000 flyers and post them around the campus. 1000 * $0.035 = $35.

We would like to advertise this event in the Daily Tar Heel. The student organization rate is $9.05 per/inch day. We would like to run two days worth of advertising on a ? page ad and we have been given an estimate of $570.16.

The Parr Center for Ethics is already sponsoring $250.00 for other expenses.

Total Requested : $605.16

ETHICS OF EMBRYONIC STEM CELL RESEARCH

Research on one kind of stem cellhuman embryonic stem cellshas generated much interest and public debate. Stem cells show potential for many different areas of health and medical research, and studying them can help us understand how they transform into the dazzling array of specialized cells that make us what we are. As science and technology continue to advance, so do ethical viewpoints surrounding these developments. It is important to educate and explore the issues, scientifically and ethically.

The Parr Center for Ethics, StemGroup, and Student Congress will sponsor a two-hour Public Discussion on the ethics of embryonic stem cell research. Location Student Union Auditorium, 7:30 p.m. January 22, 2006
Mission Statement
To provide a forum for discussion of past and current events of stem cell research, dialectic of ethics of embryonic stem cell use, and to increase overall community interest in the subject.

Budget description

We would like to request $40 to print out 800 flyers for distribution on campus and $6 for an on-campus parking permit, whose lot has yet to be given by the Department of Public Safety.

We would like to request $123.81 for our last Student Congress-funded event (Ethics of Embryonic Stem Cell Research panel discussion - January 22, 2007). Because of the polarizing viewpoints of our panel members, we took a last-minute measure to prevent any potential harm to the audience or panel members, and requested a public safety officer to be present for 2.5 hours. I am aware this type of reimbursement is rare, but possible.

ANTHONY ATALA: DISCOVERY OF AMNIOTIC FLUID STEM CELLS

On April 23, 2007 at 4:00 p.m., Dr. Anthony Atala of Wake Forest University will speak about his pivotal research on the discovery of amniotic fluid stem cells. This public event will be hosted by StemGroup and the UNC Stem Cell Interest Group. Location: MBRB G202 An honorarium of $500 will be provided by the UNC Stem Cell Interest Group.

Mission Statement

Our purpose is to provide a forum for discussion of past and current events of stem cell research, dialectic of ethics of embryonic stem cell use, and to increase overall community interest in the subject.

INTERNATIONAL LABOR RIGHTS FUND WAL-MART WORKERS SPEAKING TOUR

This is a national speaking tour of workers who are part of the supply chain that supply Wal-Mart stores worldwide. These workers will be coming from all over the world, from a worker right here in Tar Heel, NC to a Chinese worker. They will speak about sweatshop conditions in the factories that they work in. For this specific event there will be three workers, as well as a coordinator of the tour and two translators. More information about this speaking tour can be found at www.ilrf.org. The coordinators of the tour have requested a $1500 honorarium, as well as lodging for six people for one night ($270).

We would also like to print 500 flyers = 17.50.

Mission Statement

Our organization works to bring greater attention to issues of workers’ rights, on campus, locally, nationally, and internationally. To do so we work directly with workers and other progressive organizations, as well as sponsoring educational events such as the one described below.

There are three speakers that the Student Global Health Committee is seeking to fund.
Lisa Russell on October 4th
Eric Rosenthal on October 26th
Cindy Castrano on November 9th
The details of each of these engagements are in the program descriptions accompanying this request.
Thank you,
Student Global Health Committee

HEALTH AND HUMAN RIGHTS (LISA RUSSELL)

On October 4th, Lisa Russell, MPH will screen her full-length documentary "Love, Labor, Loss" on obstetric fistula in Niger. After the screening, Lisa will discuss this critical, yet unrecognized public health and human rights issue and have a Q&A with the audience. She will emphasize the human right to treatment for this disabling, yet easily remedied condition. Program Budget: $578.60
Travel: $188.60 (round-trip airline ticket JFK-RDU)
Lodging: $90 (one night at Holiday Inn)
Speaker Fees: $300

HEALTH AND HUMAN RIGHTS (ERIC ROSENTHAL)

On October 26th, Eric Rosenthal from Mental Disabilities Rights International will discuss his organizations work on human rights advocacy for individuals with mental disabilities across the globe. Rosenthal has conducted monitoring and evaluation missions in psychiatric institutions, mental health facilities, prisons and orphanages in numerous countries: including Romania, Peru, Czech Republic, Uruguay, Russia. He has worked with both the World Health Organization and UNICEF. Program Budget: $842.50
Travel: $204 (round-trip flight from Washington DC-RDU)
Lodging: $90 (to partially cover one night at Carolina Inn)
Publicity: $48.50 (150 black and white flyers at $0.04 each and 50 color flyers at $0.85 each)
Speaker Fees: $500

Admission:

HEALTH AND HUMAN RIGHTS (CINDY CASTANO)

On November 9th, Cindy Castano will screen a 10-minute video, followed by a powerpoint presentation on human rights violations in Sudan. She will discuss the slave trade and genocide in the region. She will also present information on the various organizations working in the region to free slaves and to build health care facilities for the affected in the area. Her work has been featured on NPR. Program Budget:
Travel: $133.50 [Mileage reimbursement (R/T= 300 miles to and from Charlotte, NC at the $0.445 per mile IRS rate)]
Lodging: $90 (to partially cover one night in the Carolina Inn)
Publicity: $48.50 (150 black and white flyers at $0.04 each and 50 color flyers at $0.85 each)
Speaker Fees: $300

Mission Statement

The UNC Student Global Health Committee is an organization committed to creating awareness of international health issues among the UNC community through education, advocacy, and service. The SGHC fosters an environment within which UNC students can apply their acquired knowledge and skills to engage in the promotion of health at a global level.

Fundraiser which brings patrons from throughout the region in order to actively engage them with the organization. Features music, speakers, dinner, and silent and live auctions. The two requests will be used to subsidize the invitations and programs for the event.

Admission: $50/individual, $95/couple

Mission Statement

We strive to harness the idealism and energy of students towards humanitarian projects that aim to make a positive difference in the lives of other students both in the UNC community and abroad. The projects are designed to create self-sustainable educational opportunities for disadvantaged students in developing countries while promoting partnerships with students worldwide. S4Si funds scholarship programs in Zimbabwe and Tanzania affecting the lives of more than 40 students.

Budget description

We are asking for $350 to help pay for the rights to films to be shown during Race Relations Week. We plan on showing “Miss Congeniality” and “Do the Right Thing.” Both movies highlight different issues of race in America and the showings will be followed by discussions lead by UNC professors. We are asking for $430 for to help cover the cost of publicity and printing. We are making brochures that will contain information about Students for the Advancement of Race Relations, the Campus Y and have a detailed schedule of events for Race Relations Week. They will be double sided and cost 4 cents a sheet (2 cents a side). We plan on handing these out at every Race Relations Week event. Secondly we are making post-card sized calenders that will be quick references with less information and be handed out like handbills. We are also making flyers with information about all of Race Relations week and flyers for specific events. We are also purchasing “flash ads” on facebook. These ads are $25 for 50,000 flashes in your network and show up on the side toolbar of users screens. We plan on taking out two ads in the DTH. At $9.05 per column inch, these ads will cost $289.60 total.

BEAUTY, RACE, AND MISS CONGENIALITY: A PERSPECTIVE ON RACIAL CON

This event which will take place in the Union Auditorium October 2 at 8:00 PM seeks to raise awareness about the truth of racial conditioning in mainstream Hollywood films. Professor Jennifer Ho will lead a discussion exploring the racial implications of this unlikely film following the viewing. The rights to the film are $350. Our film programming budget is $700 which covers the cost of this film and one other.

DO THE RIGHT THING FILM/DISCUSSION

We will be showing Spike Lee’s “Do the Right Thing” in the Union Auditorium at 8 PM, October 3. Professor Tim Marr will lead a discussion exploring the effect of interracial relationships on integrated communities following the viewing. The rights to the film are $350. Our film programming budget is $700 which covers the cost of this film and one other.

Mission Statement

Students for the Advancement of Race Relations (SARR) strives to facilitate communication and understanding across racial lines. It is our goal to bring racial issues into the public’s consciousness by fostering constructive, provocative discourse. We challenge everyone to confront harmful stereotypes and biases and emphasize the collective sense of sisterhood and brotherhood that unites us all. Race Relations Week is a week-long event in the fall that serves as a culmination of our efforts.

Samantha Powers: America and the Age of Genocide

Samantha Powers, Pulitzer Prize winning author and founder of the Carr Center for Human Rights at Harvard University, will give a lecture on America and its response to genocide (the thesis of her book) and what students can do as human rights activists. She will give a class visit and a book signing as well. We are planning to have the event either February 26th or March 27th and already have Memorial Hall reserved for both of those dates. Carrol and Hamilton auditoriums are also possible locations. Contract Costs: $10000 (SUDAN requests 5000)
Food: $150
Publicity: $400
Tech and House for Memorial Hall: $1000
Transportation: $200
Accomodations: $150
Total: $11,900
SUDAN is requesting for $5000 for contract costs. The remaining $6900 will be covered by C.U.A.B.

Mission Statement

The purpose of SUDAN is to raise awareness and promote advocacy for the genocide currently going on in Darfur, Sudan, as well as to further awareness of genocide in general.

Budget description

Puchase of ammunition for pistol training clinic

PISTOL TRAINING CLINIC

This clinic will teach students practical and safe handling of handguns. The course consists of a safety lecture before firearms are handled, instruction on how to properly handle firearms, and simple live-fire exercises. 300 dollars for ammunition. 200 rounds of ammunition per person at $5/50 rounds. 15 people attending.

We are receiving instruction and facilities usage at no cost.

Mission Statement

The Tar Heel Rifle and Pistol Club is dedicated to the promotion of Second Amendment rights, and to teaching the proper and safe handling of firearms.

Notes

-Will be provided with ammunition, and then will reimburse.

Budget description

The Hill began the fall 2006 semester with $1060 after $1045 of an annual appropriation of $2105 went toward a debt incurred by the previous editor. $740 ($640 + $100 shipping costs) will go toward printing the magazine with Benson Newspaper Printing (the cheapest printer in the area even with shipping costs, versus $3700 quoted by Tri-Printers in Chapel Hill). An estimated $17.50 will cover 500 flyers at $0.035/copy to publicize and solicit advertisers. Another $17.50 will pay for the printing costs of 50 copies of the 10-page orientation packet for staff members. The remaining $285 will go toward the next issue, but we will be short $455 of the $740 printing costs.

Mission Statement

The Hill is a medium for analysis of state, national, and international politics. This publication is meant to serve as a middle ground and a battleground for political thought on campus where people can present their beliefs and test their ideas. A high premium is placed on having a publication that is not affiliated with any party or organization, but rather is openly nonpartisan on the whole.

Notes

Budget description

Each issue of the magazine now costs $800 to print 3000 copies ($700 + $100 shipping costs) at Benson Newspaper Printing (the cheapest printer in the area even with shipping costs, versus $3700 quoted by Tri-Printers in Chapel Hill). Therefore we need $1600 to print our two spring issues. An estimated $17.50 will cover 500 flyers at $0.035/copy to publicize and solicit advertisers. Another $17.50 will pay for the printing costs of 50 copies of the 10-page orientation packet for staff members, bringing our total to $1635.

NOTE: The Hill began the 2006-2007 year with $1060. We were appropriated $2105, but we owed $1045 due to complications under the previous leadership. After a fall subsequent appropriation of $455, we were able to fund our two fall issues. We now need funding for spring.

Mission Statement

This publication is meant to serve as a middle ground and a battleground for political thought on campus where people can present their beliefs and test their ideas. Budget description

The Triangle Dance Festival for AIDS will be held on the evening of Monday March 26th 2007 in Memorial Hall. The current cost of Memorial Hall is $2,400. Since our goal is for all of the ticket sales to go directly to the HIV/AIDS charities, we are seeking outside funding to cover the entire cost of Memorial Hall. After the event, a reception will be held in the lobby of Memorial Hall. We will display information about the HIV/AIDS charities we sponsor, and other organizations will have representatives and information. Most of the food will be donated by local restaurants. Last year, we used about $500 for publicity and supplies. This year we need to step up publicity to draw in more audience members. We will need $100 for programs and $100 for decoration and event signs. The remaining $400 will go toward advertising in local newspapers and the DTH, maintaining the website, and making posters and banners.

The Dance Festival will be about 2 hours long and will feature about 5 on-campus performance groups and 5 community dance groups. After the performance, there will be a reception in the lobby with food, live jazz, and information about HIV/AIDS organizations. All proceeds will go directly toward the sponsored AIDS clinics (including the NC Alliance for AIDS Services in Orange County, and the Snehadaan AIDS clinic in a slum of Bangalore, India.) Last year the Festival drew in 530 audience members and raised $5,500. This is the only program that TDFA is organizing, so the expenses detailed in the previous section encompass the program budget ($2,400 for venue space and $600 for publicity).

Admission : $7
Mission Statement

Innovatively combining advocacy and the arts, the Triangle Dance Festival for AIDS committee works year round to bring together UNC-Chapel Hill and the Triangles best performing artists in collaboration and celebration, engaging the student body and local audiences in AIDS issues, and benefiting local and global direct-service AIDS clinics.

Budget description

Main publicity and printing expenditures are to pay for fliers for the event, enlarged photographs for the event.

LATINO MUSLIMS IFTAR (DINNER) EVENT

The event will be held on October 12, 2006. We will be showing a 15 minute documentary film entitled “Luces Sobre Islam” which was presented at Harvard’s Conference on Islam in 2001. The movie, directed by Nicole Ballevian, documents experiences of the Latino Muslim community in Los Angeles. The invited speaker, Umar Yasin Diego Guadalupe, a Latino Muslim from New Jersey, will then give an hour long presentation on the history and current experiences of the Latino Muslim community in America. This event will fall during the Holy Month of Ramadaan for Muslims, so we will also be breaking our fasts by having a Mexican-style dinner. The program budget includes money to publicize the event by purchasing fliers (we have 3 quotes), a banner for the event, enlarged photos of Latin American Mosques for decoration, plastic tableware (spoons, forks, plates, napkins, cups), and evaluation forms for people to provide feedback about the event.

TRIANGLE MSA IFTAR (DINNER)

The event will be held on October 1st and will serve as a fundraiser Lebanese orphans who are victims of the current conflicts in the Middle East. The fundraiser will entail 2 speakers along with a dinner. The event also falls during the Holy month of Ramadaan, so it is customary for Muslims to break their fasts together. One of the speakers is a National Representative for Islamic Relief, one of the largest non-profit Muslim charities in the United States. The budget includes funding to buy a banner for the MSA, decorations such as center pieces for the tables and balloons, donation boxes which can be used for future events, tableware such as table cloths, plates, forks, spoons, napkins, and cups, and printing for program booklets and evaluation forms.

Admission: $8 for Students and $10 for the Public

Mission Statement
The purpose of MSA is to inform the academic community about Islam and the culture of the people that practice it. The organization also works together with other student and community organizations to promote dialogue and understanding of Islam.

To complete and maintain an MGMA student network our chapter must have a minimum of 5 MGMA student memberships. These memberships are $65 per student, coming to a total of $325. With these memberships, our chapter will receive the following information:

- Assistance with finding a MGMA member to serve as the University Forum Representative.
- An MGMA resource catalog listing products and services available through the association
- Designated staff to serve as a resource with network activities
- Access to online resources helping interested students with finding internship and job opportunities.

Mission Statement

The UNC-Chapel Hill Student Chapter of the Medical Group Management Association exists to:

A. Increase student awareness of career opportunities within medical group practice
B. Facilitate networking with national and local administrators
C. Increase students management skill set and knowledge
D. Encourage students to be actively aware of current legislation effecting group practice management

Budget description

This is a request for remaining Spring 2007 funds. We are asking for $293.80 for a speaker, John Passacantando. We will fly him in for one night to speak in mid-March.

SPEECH: EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF GREENPEACE, JOHN PASSACANTANDO

Greenpeace is an independent, campaigning organization which uses non-violent, creative confrontation to expose global environmental problems, and to force solutions for a green and peaceful future. Greenpeace’s goal is to ensure the ability of the earth to nurture life in all its diversity. John will be raising awareness through his speech and also enlightening students with ways to get involved. He was educated in North Carolina.

This event will be open to everyone on campus who is interested in environmental awareness. It will be non-partisan. It should attract UNC environmental groups, especially. Also, members of the Chapel Hill-Carrboro community would be welcome. The speaker only requires his travel and lodging to be covered. He charges no honorarium.

We are requesting the subsidized lodging appropriation of $90 for one night. A round-trip flight in March from DC to RDU, flying in on a Monday afternoon and back out on Tuesday morning, is $203.80. We have this quoted from expedia.com. That is all we are requesting. We are in negotiations with the speaker for mid-March.

Mission Statement

We are the University of North Carolina Young Democrats. Our purpose is to educate the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill’s campus community concerning political issues and governmental affairs, and motivate it to take action generating positive change. We will encourage our members to take full advantage of their rights to vote and voice their opinion. We will encourage them to use the Democratic Party as their outlet for their political and social activism.

Budget description

In order to produce 2,000 copies of our magazine each semester, UNC Printing Services charges $3840. After researching other printers in the area, UNC Printing Services has the lowest price in comparison to other printers in the area, such as Laser Image Corporate Printing and BANG printing. We are requesting Production funds to pay for lighting and sound at the Cabaret for our Spring Release Party, to be held in April. We need $50.00 for Programming in order to pay for decorations because we plan on spending our generated budget on food. Having done this program before, we foresee spending $30.00 at Party City on decorations and $20.00 at Wal-Mart on paper products for the food.

The Magazine Release Party will be held on April 21st and the purpose of the event is to make sure that everyone on campus knows about the release of the magazine. We want the funds we get from Student Government to be put to good use; the more students we get to continuously read VW magazine means that our SG funds are directly impacting the campus as a whole, not just a select number of people. Also we want people to know that Virtuous Woman is a quality publication and that we care about our readership. By having this fancy affair complete with food, entertainment, dancing, and nice decor it shows that we appreciate our current readers and that we want to reach out to even more people. In order to attract a diverse crowd, the program will contain entertainment including choirs, dance groups, step teams, soloists, and spoken word. We did this program in April of 2006 and it was a smashing success as we attracted a diversity of performers including Psalm 100, AEO step team, SIC mime and dance team, and others. Since our last release party, we have had several requests to do it again. The program will be held in the Union Cabaret, so we are requesting $125 for production costs since we need someone to run the lighting and sound. We are also requesting money for decorations; at our last release party we spent... approximately $50 for decorations including tablecloths, table decor, balloons, and banners.

Mission Statement

Virtuous Woman is a publication that focuses on inspiring and encouraging women of faith to grow and become all that God has called them to be. Virtuous Women aims to inspire and encourage college women in their walk and relationship with Jesus Christ. We want women on this campus to know that they are not alone in their struggles and that there are people on this campus who can offer sound advice and who have a compassionate heart.

Notes

Group was informed they will not be funded at the same level next year.

Budget description

Each year Vote Carolina publishes a candidate guide prior to the November elections. Last year, thanks to funding from Congress, Vote Carolina worked with the DTH to distribute the guides as inserts in the DTH. We plan to do so again this year. The P+P request is the cost of printing the guides and inserting them in the DTH for distribution on October 23rd. Money will be paid to the printer, not to the DTH.

Mission Statement

Vote Carolina is a non-partisan organization dedicated to increase civic participation by students at UNC. Each year we hold voter registration and get out the vote drives and work to promote voter education.

Budget description

For the most part the expenses of Vox will go towards printing and publicity of its events, including for fliers, posters, and t-shirts. Other parts of our expenses include educational supplies for our Campus-wide Safe Sex Initiative and then for making Voter registration guides for the upcoming elections in November. The capital expenditure or supplies that will cost over $300 will be for the Rape Awareness and Prevention and providing “date rape” coasters for women on campus.

SOUTH DAKOTA SOLIDARITY

This program is aimed at raising campuse awareness of the state of women’s reproductive rights in South Dakota and to show the women of South Dakota who advocate the reproductive freedom our support. Printing and Publicity (Posters and fliers): $100
Publicity (T-shirts): $300
Supplies (pens, markers, etc.): $40

RAPE AWARENESS AND PREVENTION

This program is to help educate students concerning rape prevention and sexual safety, to promote the awareness of sexual safety around campus, and to provide other resources for rape crises. Capital Expenditure (Safe-Drink Coasters): $900
Publicity (fliers and posters): $100
Office supplies (markers): $20

CAMPUS SAFE SEX INITIATIVE

To help educates the student body about sexually transmitted diseases, safe sex, and responsible decision making, as well as providing a comfortable environment to facilitate the discussion of personal and often difficult topics. Educational Supplies: $200
Printing and Publicity (Fliers and Posters): $150
Publicity (t-shirts): $300

VOTER REGISTRATION GUIDES AND EDUCATION

To increase awareness concerning the upcoming elections in November by helping students become registered to vote and creating voter registration guides/pamphlets.
Printing and Publicity (Fliers and Posters): $150
Educational Supplies (registration guides): $200
Office supplies (pens and markers): $40

Mission Statement

Vox of UNC-Chapel Hill supports full access to comprehensive reproductive health care services that preserve and protect the privacy and rights of individuals; advocates public policy ensures these rights; and supports complete comprehensive sexual education in schools. The organization provides information as well as resources by working with Planned Parenthood, and strives to increase awareness of women’s healthcare and rights by providing comprehensive sexual education, information on STD’s

Notes

Emily McFarlin- requested honorarium $1000, removed pending SFAC approval of rape prevention fee funding.
Fundraising was requested and assured to be returned in full- 800.00
Envelopes removed due to lobbying!
